How well do you know your faith?

1. What town was Jesus born in? What town did Joseph and Mary go to for the census? What town did the Holy Family live in when they came back from Egypt?
2. When the shepherds went looking for Jesus, what was the sign they were to look for?
3. Two of the four Gospels do not tell of the birth of Christ. Which two?
4. How old was Anna the prophetess when she saw Jesus as a baby in the temple? The Holy Spirit revealed to which man that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ?
5. In Matthew's Gospel how many generations are recorded between Abraham and the Messiah? This is divided into three groups each of how many generations?
6. This saint was one of the seven deacons in the early Church who was assigned by the apostles to distribute food to the poor. We read in the Acts of the Apostles that he worked great signs and wonders among the people and certain Jews would engage him in argument but he always confounded them with his wisdom. Ultimately, they made false charges against him, brought in false witnesses, and succeeded in having him stoned to death. Saul (St Paul) was at his stoning. St. Augustine pointed out; this saint had the privilege of having his martyrdom described in the Acts of the Apostles making him the protomartyr, the title bestowed on the first Christian martyr. He is the patron saint of deacons. Who is he?
7. What are the meanings of the names Jesus and Emmanuel?
8. Born in London around 1118, this saint studied at Paris and returned to England after the death of his mother. At the age of 25 he became a cleric under the archbishop of Canterbury and spent time in Rome and Bologna before going to Auxerre in France to study law. He became an archdeacon at the age of 36 and in 1154 was promoted to the office of chancellor under King Henry II, whose favor he enjoyed for 7 years. He was ordained a priest and bishop in 1162 and was the first person in England to celebrate the solemnity of the Blessed Trinity. He resisted the king in matters of Church property and supported the right of clerics to be tried by the ecclesiastical courts. Condemned for disobedience to the king, he fled to France and spent 6 years in exile. Returning to England in 1170 he was murdered at the altar. King Henry II was placed under personal interdict by the pope and was absolved after his repentance in 1172. His death resulted in the reconciliation of the King of England and the Church. Who was this?
9. Which king ordered all children 2 years and younger to be killed in Bethlehem and the outlying areas?
10. Traditionally when do the twelve days of Christmas begin and end? Answers on back page

A Catholic boy from a parochial school was telling a university professor who lived next door about the Blessed Mother. The professor scoffed at the boy, saying: "But there is no difference between her and my mother." The boy answered: "That's what you say, but there's a heck of a lot of difference between the sons." That is the answer.

It is because Our Lord is so different from other sons that we set His Mother apart from all mothers. It is through Mary that Jesus became the bridge between the Divine and the human. As our love does not start with Mary, so neither does it stop with Mary. Mary is a window through which our humanity first catches a glimpse of Divinity on earth. Or perhaps she is more like a magnifying glass; she intensifies our love of her Son and makes our prayers more bright and burning. It is on account of Our Divine Lord that Mary receives special attention and not on account of herself. Left to herself, her motherhood would dissolve into humanity. But when seen in the light of His Divinity, she becomes unique. Never before or since did Eternity become time in a woman, nor did Omnipotence take on the bonds of flesh in a maid. It is her Son who makes her motherhood different. We did not make her different, we found her different. We did not choose Mary, He did.
