The Baptism Of The Lord

Mark 1:7-11

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed:

“One mightier than I is coming after me.

I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals.

I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John.

On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him.

And a voice came from the heavens,

“You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”

The newest child given to God in Baptism on January 10th was Joseph Innocent Rowe Son to Matthew and Lauren And Brother to Magdalen

The Christian community welcomes you with great joy! In its name you are claimed for Christ our Savior by the sign of His cross.

If You Contract COVID-19 -

Or if someone in your household does, please refrain from attending Mass until you are out of the quarantine period. Also, please notify the parish immediately, so that we can quickly become aware if an outbreak is traced to a particular weekend. Thus far, numerous parishioners have had the virus but all have responded appropriately, thus protecting the health of others and preventing an outbreak in the parish that would require its temporary closure. Your pastor, staff and volunteers are working diligently to keep Masses safe for everyone to attend, and we thank everyone for observing the bishop's directives which contribute to this end and keep the sacraments available. Please also remember that the bishop's dispensation from the Sunday obligation remains in effect.

The Baptism of Jesus:

What Happened and Why

By: Brian Kelly <https://catholicism.org/the-baptism-of-jesus-what-happened-and-why.html>

“Monsignor (Pope) highlights four gifts that Christ's baptism bequeathed to men:

1) access — the heavens open above Christ; and, with our own baptism, heaven is open for us, and original sin is removed from our souls, sanctifying grace with the virtues of Faith, Hope, and Charity infused, and we are free as children of God. 2) anointing — at our baptism we, too, receive the Holy Spirit, the “Spirit of the Anointed One” becoming in body and soul His temples. 3) acknowledgement from the Father as adopted sons — “You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ” (Gal 3:26), and 4) approval — with the supernatural gift of sanctifying grace. Imagine this, when God sees His grace, that is His image in our souls, He can say to us also, imperfect as we are, “In you I am well pleased.”

Saint Augustine, and other fathers, marvel at the humility of the Savior in choosing such an accessible and abundant element as water to be His incarnational instrument in the work of salvation. And lest any adult should be reluctant to submit to such a simple and childlike ritual as baptism, the Son of God Himself vouchsafed to set the example first. Furthermore, it was befitting that He, the Head of the Mystical Body, who would call His members to baptism, should have been baptized Himself. Thus, in all things He could say in truth to His disciples “Follow Me.”

Classes for Sacramental Preparation

will begin Sunday, February 21st. If you have a child who is 7 years of age and in the second grade, or, an older child who has not yet received First Reconciliation and First Eucharist and is in need of preparation, please find the sign-up in the vestibule or contact Krista Baziak at the Religious Education email. There will be an informational meeting for Parents on Monday, February 1st at 7pm. There will be no virtual stream of the meeting.
